UI Team Manager

jharding@aboutone.com

Lehi, Utah

Direct supervisor while working at AboutOne. He can verify my ability to learn new technologies quickly and how I am able to be flexible to changing priorities and working conditions. He will also verify my visual design skills while working on his front-end design team. He would always give me the most challenging assignments because he knew I could not only handle the work load but that the finished product would exceed his expectations.

USU Extension Agent

jolene.bunnell@usu.edu

Provo, Utah

Jolene is the executive director of the Utah Count 4-H program. I worked closely with her during my 18 months working for the 4-H program. She will attest to my love for hard work and how well I can work with other people, even in tough situations.
